

ABOUT US

AMG Constructions prides itself in not only building quality constructions (new build/extensions/renovations) but building quality relationships with the clientele. This ensures devotion to all aspects of the build, from initial quoting to drafting, to complete construction to handover; keeping the clientele's needs and expectations at the forefront. The company's ultimate philosophy is to deliver quality work, within budget and within timeframes. Work will always be completed at the highest quality, and that's a guarantee.

Andrew Greenall (Andy) is a Registered Builder Practitioner (No. CDB-U 52073) and Masters Builders Association Member (028469). He has been in the building/construction business for over 30 years, and is a qualified carpenter by trade.

Andy is the Director and owner of AMG Constructions Pty. Ltd. with its head office located in Mount Dandenong.

Director / Owner
AMG Constructions Pty. Ltd.

Upon meeting Andy, there's one thing you're going to notice - he's just a solid down-to-earth, football loving, fitness fanatic, genuine guy. He looks like a builder, walks like a builder and talks like a builder. Simply put - he was born to be a builder! After inspection of your site, his eyes and brain will kick-start into motion and he will always find the most efficient and cost effective solution to all stages of your build without compromising on quality or design.

Andy is super friendly, casual and easy-to-talk-to. He ensures that the clientele is always informed of every step in their build journey. Fact: almost 90% of work secured is solely via word of mouth and past clientele recommendations. Andy embraces new clientele like his own family, and with that comes simply the best intentions, devotion and superior end results.
